FUN FACT: I've never enjoyed running, but I completed two 5k Tough Mudders. I also will be doing one of their 10ks in April. I do it for the obstacles and the comradery.

The background is a vibrant blue gradient. In the center is a large, light blue, irregular shape. Scattered around are various medical icons: a syringe with a drop of dark blue liquid, several pills (red, blue, and red-and-blue capsules), and two green leaves. Small white plus signs are also scattered throughout the background.
